The Whole System Collaboration model develops synergy and coherence in our organization. The system brings together practices, procedures, and resources to focus on our ‘why.’ At the core of our model is our ‘why’ - student learning and achievement. Shared leadership empowers and guides staff members through the planning process, implementation, analysis, next steps, and reflection of each developmental idea. Mutual accountability and dependency creates and drives our actions moving forward. The barometer of our progress are the Indicators of Success.